Pearline
Washing Compound

has become more popular with the women of this land—in less time—than anything ever invented for the household.

The intelligent rich use Pearline because of the superior results obtained—perfect cleanliness.

The intelligent middle class—because of the superior results, and the fact that, in doing away with the rubbing, it does away with the worst of the wear and tear on clothing and paint—makes a saving.

The intelligent poor—because it takes the drudgery out of their hardest work—a delicate woman can do a large wash with the aid of Pearline—know it's better than soap.

PEARLINE will wash clothes—clean paint, china, silver, glassware, windows, oil paintings, carpets without taking up—better—in less time and with less labor than anything known, besides it is absolutely harmless.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers are offering imitations which they claim to be Pearline or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—they are not and besides are dangerous. PEARLINE is never peddled but sold by all good grocers.

Manufactured only by JAMES PYLE, New York.

Whig and Courier.

BOUTELLE & BURR, PROPRIETORS.

O. A. BOUTELLE, EDITOR

All business letters should be addressed to Boutelle & Burr, and communications intended for publication should be addressed: "Editor of Whig and Courier."

FRIDAY, MARCH 15, 1889.

As the days roll on we are more and more pleased with the fact that the World is in no sense responsible for the election of John R. Fellows to the District Attorneyship of this great metropolitan county of New York.—New York World.

The people of New York are largely indebted to Reformer Cleveland for this unsavory official who is repudiated by this great Democratic organ because it is ashamed of him.

Governor Burleigh yesterday appointed the Commissioners to make a State valuation, under the resolve passed by the last Legislature. The list is an able one. Three of the board of 1880 appointed on the new commission are Messrs. Knowlton, of Cumberland, Gilman, of Piscataquis, and Hall, of York. F. A. Simpson, Esq., of Carmel, is the representative of Penobscot county on the board.

It is useless to bandy words with the Commercial because that paper revels in falsehood and deceit and the selfish aims and purposes that actuate it are too well understood to need reiteration. If anything could be more ridiculous, however, than its labored effusion last evening in support of its lying assertion about THE WHIG it would be the assumption that it was in some way instrumental in shaping the sentiment of the Republican caucus, or its air of injured innocence, when, after assailing the motives of others, its own little scheme is pricked.

Those Democratic organs which were in agony because General Batchelder had not been named for Assistant Secretary of the Treasury on Monday, will be in quite as much agony because he was appointed on Tuesday. When they thought he had been left out, they were sure that ex-Senator Platt had no influence with the administration; now that he is in, they have no hesitation in declaring that he has too much. If President Harrison gets along without pleasing the Democratic organs his administration will be a great success.

Giving credit to whom credit is due the Kennebec Journal, in referring to the Legislature says: For the prompt and efficient action of the two branches much credit is due to the President of the Senate, Hon. Henry Lord, and Hon. Fred N. Dow, Speaker of the House. These gentlemen discharged their duty with marked ability, urbanity, and success, and the Senators and Representatives showed their appreciation of their presiding officers by being signally courteous. And while speaking of the conduct of the presiding officers, it is just to say that they have been greatly assisted in their duties by the capable and ready aid of the clerks and the assistant clerks as well as of the other officers of the Senate and House.

The Portland Press adopts a very petulant tone in commenting upon the Capital question, and makes insinuations that it will doubtless regret when it has taken time for reflection. For instance in referring to the speech of Senator Libby it says:

The speech was one of the ablest of the session, and had the gentlemen to whom it was addressed not been tightly tied up its arguments would have defeated the Capitol bill.

In marked contrast to this the Express while equally interested takes a more rational view of the situation. It says:

The battles have been fought and recognizing that great principle of American institutions, the right of the majority to rule, we must gracefully acquiesce in its decisions and bury all sectional feelings.

Atlanta has invited President Harrison to visit that city at the time of the exposition, and the Atlanta Constitution proposes that he be carried there in a train of cars manufactured wholly in the South and placed under the charge of a conductor clad in Southern made garments. There is no greater proof of the industrial progress made in the South since the war, says the Philadelphia Press, than that the realization of such a proposition is thought possible. The change from the time when cotton and hominy were the sole productions of that section to the present day, when it is proposed to place a Southern manufactured engine and cars at the disposal of the President, shows an advance in one generation possible nowhere else save in America. It was made, too, under the policy of protection which the South did its best to break down last year.

In a recent interview regarding the work of the Legislature, Representative J. H. Manley says: "The charge of extravagance which has been so freely made by certain newspapers is entirely without foundation. The records will show that this Legislature has reduced the public debt, and reduced taxation after this year more than one-sixth of the entire State assessment, so that the tax payer will after this year find that his tax receipt is less than he has heretofore paid. It is true that the Legislature has increased the salaries of some of the State officers, amounting in the aggregate to about $5,000 per annum. But there is no State officer who receives to-day an adequate salary for the services performed. I mean by that, such a salary as I would pay for like services with any good business house. The increased appropriations have, with the exception of the appropriation for the enlargement of the State House, been wholly for charitable and educational purposes."

It was an expedient move on the part of the Republican administration to demand the resignation of the Attorney General for the district of West Virginia. But General Watts has pluckily refused to resign, and it is doubtful if the administration can get him out before to-morrow, when the indictments against 200 Republicans for election frauds are to be tried in the Federal Court.—Boston Globe.

Here's richness. The Democratic party in West Virginia put up a job to steal the Governorship. When they found that Gen. Goff was elected on the face of the returns they refused to conform to the law and declare the result in the Legislature. The case then went to the Supreme Court which returned the remarkable opinion that the Democratic Governor holds over until the body that has refused to act decides upon his successor, thus making it possible for a Democratic Legislature to thwart the will of the people whenever it pleases. The Democratic Governor as his part of the conspiracy attempts to steal the seats of Republican Congressmen by throwing out some returns and miscalling the figures in others. This is the interesting state of affairs in West Virginia as a result of Democratic rule, and how when the resignation of the United States District Attorney is asked for the Democratic organs declare that it is an attempt to shield Republicans who violated the election laws.

The Assassination ... cton.

Senator Berry of Ar... as considered at his duty, says ... Democrat Journal, to make the best ... possible of his State and party's ... charge of being responsible for ... assination of John M. Clayton. In ... palliate in some measure the hei... of the crime he has tried to set ... st it the murder of General Hind... which occurred more than twenty ... s. Even if the circumstances were ... or Berry stated them the first mu... not be accepted as an excuse for the second. But as it happens the facts are not as Senator Berry gave them. In his speech in the Senate February 14, he said:

I say that when Powell Clayton had his foot upon the necks of the people of the State of Arkansas, General Tom C. Hindman, a man who was a member of Congress before the war, who had just retired after having made a gallant canvass on behalf for John M. Clark, the Democratic nominee, was shot down at the dark hour of night through his window in the presence of his own family and his own children. Governor Clayton at that time had control of the entire State Government of Arkansas, backed by the Federal troops at Washington, and yet that assassin was never known, never arrested, never punished, and it is stated by some of the newspapers in my State—I do not know whether it is true or not—that no reward was offered or no effort made to arrest him.

When Senator Berry made this statement he either knew that he was saying what was false or that he was wholly ignorant of the facts concerning the event about which he pretended to talk. And now note how plain a tale will put him down. The Little Rock Ark., Gazette, the leading Democratic paper of that State, commenting on Senator Berry's speech and of the effort to excuse the Clayton murder by the Hindman murder, says:

Gen. Hindman was assassinated on the night of September 27, 1868. He had not been engaged in any campaign in support of Hanks for Congress, for Hanks did not run for Congress until 1870. He was not out at the close, but almost at the beginning of the campaign, in which it is said by some and denied by others that he had taken some part. There is no allusion to any speech made by him in the Gazette of that period and no charge or intimation that his was a political murder, although the paper was fighting the reconstructionists with all its splendid zeal and energy.

A reward of $1,000 was offered for the arrest and conviction of the assassin and $500 for each accessory. Some months afterwards, a man was arrested in Memphis, who, while drunk, had made some acknowledgement of his alleged connection with the crime. He was arrested and brought to Helena on a requisition, was indicted, tried and acquitted. The prosecution was conducted by Judge W. H. H. Clayton, then prosecuting attorney for that district, ably and vigorously assisted by Judge Hanley, then the leading Democratic lawyer of Eastern Arkansas, and an intimate personal friend of General Hindman. The assassination of General Hindman has been attributed to various causes, to least of all to politics.

Our Legislators.

Hon. S. W. Matthews, in a letter to this paper, the Aroostook Republican, from Augusta, writes:

In the Senate no man has won a more enviable standing than Hon. E. C. Ryder, of Penobscot. He is justly regarded as a clean, clear-headed and able statesman, who on every occasion is prepared to meet the issues involved in a candid and intelligent manner. He is a fine speaker, as his impromptu defence of Congressman Houtelle against an unjust attack demonstrated. We predict that Mr. Ryder will preside at the next session over the body he has during this session so ably graced.

The present Legislature has a number of able debaters but no one has "made his mark" as has Barker of Bangor. "Blood tells," and the blood of the Barkers and Hills seems to have concentrated its best qualities in the young Representative, Lewis A. His speech on the Capitol question was a perfect gem. Its peroration was a poetical summary of the whole controversy.

"They digged a pit,
They digged it deep,
They digged it for a brother,
Hot by their sin,
They tumbled in
The pit they digged for brother."

FROM CHERRYFIELD.

Death at Millbridge from Paralysis.

CHERRYFIELD, March 14. John T. Wallace, Jr., a prominent citizen of Millbridge, was stricken with apoplexy this morning and died at noon. He had been for many years a leading merchant and actively engaged in the manufacture of lumber. He was active in local politics and town affairs and had represented his district in the lower branch of the Legislature. He was sixty years of age and leaves a widow and ten children.

FROM FARMINGTON.

The Holmes Forgery Case.

FARMINGTON, March 14. The case of State vs. George W. Russell, for forgery and uttering forged paper, came up in the Supreme Judicial Court to-day. Owing to the absence, by sickness, of one of the firm of Oliver Ames & Sons, of Massachusetts, a material witness for the Government, the indictment for forgery was continued. The indictment for uttering forged paper was also continued. It is claimed by the defence that the latter indictment is defective, in that the foreman of the Grand Jury which presented the indictment is a Director in the Sandy River National Bank, where the forged paper was uttered.

Another development in this case has been suits brought at this term by the National Bank against Gilbert Miller and Jacob Holmes, of Wilton, respectively, as sureties on a note dated March 24, 1888, for $1,200, which was discounted two days later, and having $500 endorsed thereon.

This note was given up July 9, 1888, when a new note for $1,200, purporting to have been signed by the same sureties was discounted by Russell. It is alleged that the latter note was forged and this suit is brought on the original note which is admitted to have been genuine. Evidence was taken this afternoon and will be reported to the Law Court. The action against Holmes was continued to await the result in this case. Both juries were discharged finally this afternoon.

Who is George C. Hayden, or B. C. Payne, of Winslow, Maine?

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 14. On Friday last George C. Hayden, an old man of seventy-five years, died at a cheap boarding house on Franklin avenue where he had lived for many years. He was never known to work, lived in squalid quarters, had no associates and was supposed to be very poor. All his surroundings indicated this. The public administrator, in examining Hayden's trunks, found a note addressed to that official with a safe deposit key enclosed. It contained the name of B. C. Payne, of Winslow, Maine. The administrator yesterday visited the safe deposit company's vaults and in Hayden's box discovered more than $60,000 in cash, stocks and bonds, and to-day filed an inventory of them in the Probate Court. Hayden has no relatives here, but is supposed to have some in Maine, and efforts will be made to find them.

THE NATIONAL SENATE.

Executive Work of the Special Session.

WASHINGTON, March 13. It was voted that when the Senate adjourn to-day it be until Monday.

The Senate went into executive session. While the Senate was sitting with closed doors Mr. Gibson's resolution was taken up, for the appointment of a select committee of seven Senators on the relations of the United States with Mexico and Central America. Mr. Gibson spoke in support of it.

Mr. Morrill expressed the hope that if such a committee is appointed, the chair would not forget him as he would like to make a trip to Mexico in a palace car with a buffet. If the matter was to be considered by a committee it should be either by the Committee on Commerce, or on Finance. He hoped the resolution would be referred to one of these committees.

Mr. Platt recognized the importance of cultivating friendly relations of a commercial character with Mexico and the South American States, and favored the reference of all such resolutions to the appropriate committees, and thought it bad policy to depart from that rule in any case. He moved a reference of the resolution to the Committee on Commerce.

Mr. Reagan advocated the adoption of the resolution.

Mr. Call favored the adoption of the resolution and opposed the motion for reference. He also advocated, indirectly, his own resolution, proposing a like select committee for Cuba and the West India Islands. The question of the annexation or acquisition of the Island of Cuba was, he said, present to the mind of a large portion of the people of the United States.

Mr. Hale objected to further consideration of the subject.

At 3.20 the Senate adjourned until Monday.

THE SAMOAN AFFAIRS.

The Reported Naval Conflict Entirely Sensational.

Unusual Tranquility Prevails at the Island.

AUCKLAND, March 14. Advices just received from Samoa show that there was no ground for the sensational rumor of a collision between the United States man-of-war Nipsic and the Servian corvette Olga. Far from this, the German officials on the island have abandoned their aggressive policy, the proclamation of martial law has been publicly withdrawn and the Germans have abandoned all claim to the right of searching incoming vessels for contraband of war.

Both these steps have met with the hearty approval of all foreign residents at Apia and have had a quieting effect. Unusual tranquility prevails throughout the island. Matafa, however, has a force of troops estimated to be 8,000 strong. Tamasese' army consists of about 900. The men-of-war, both German and American, still remain at Apia, ready for any emergency that may arise.

MONTREAL, March 14. A London cable despatch says: "The Canadian Gazette publishes details regarding the new mail subsidies the Dominion government has decided to secure. The British and Dominion governments will join in subsidizing a fortnightly service from Vancouver to China, Japan, Australia and New Zealand and will also subsidize this service to secure an extension to Australian points. The aggregate subsidies of the Atlantic and Pacific services are £250,000 per annum. It is proposed to form an independent company. It will not be necessary for the Canadian Pacific Railroad Company to undertake any part of the service. City circles are somewhat alarmed at the prospects of the Canadian Pacific assuming such large functions and the present plan seems to meet with general and cordial approval."

Pullman sleeping car Penobscot, which has for some time been running between this city and Boston, has returned from the Pullman Company's Wilmington, Del., shops, having been there for several weeks undergoing a thorough overhauling. The interior arrangement has been changed to conform to the latest plans of the Pullman Company. It has been newly upholstered in blue silk plush, sections 11 and 12 have been decorated with curtains and draperies of velvet, which is according to the newest ideas of the company. The car is now in the best of condition, comparing favorably with the newest cars made by the Pullman Company. The mate to this car, the Kennebec, is now at the Wilmington shops undergoing similar repairs and alterations, and will soon be out and placed in service between this city and Boston. These two cars will be permanently on the run. No division of the Pullman car service has better cars than the Bangor and Boston route. One of the latest innovations by the company is the introduction of compressed air, which comes from the pipes that work the air brakes into the water tanks, so that the water now runs from the faucets and does not have to be pumped as formerly. This is an improvement that will be much appreciated by travellers. The Pullman sleeping car Garden City arrived in the city yesterday morning to take the place of the sleeping car Bangor, which has been running between this city and St. John the past year. The Bangor will go immediately to the Wilmington shops and will be thoroughly overhauled and repaired for this season's business. As soon as the Bangor returns the sleeping car Augusta will go to the shops for similar repairs. The car Trinidad, which was brought from Chicago last October to go into private service for Mr. J. Montgomery Sears, and which ran between this city and Boston for a short time in extra service, is now running between Washington, D. C., and the City of Mexico in the Mexican special, a fast United train. It is called the Sunset Limited [illegible]

Members of Henry Grattan Court, Ancient Order of Foresters, are arranging for a concert and ball, to occur in Norombega Hall about the first of May. Andrews' Orchestra will furnish music for the concert and dancing.

There has been considerable pleasure yachting in the bay during the winter and spring and it has been very comfortable sailing for as a general thing the weather has been warm and favorable for yachting. Many of the owners of sailing craft along the shores of the bay have tried their boats during the winter.

James Fahey, who was arrested for assault and attempted robbery upon Mr. William Bryant, was before the Municipal Court yesterday forenoon, the charge being simple assault. Mr. Bryant was not inclined to press matters, and Fahey was fined $10 and costs. He said that he was intoxicated at the time that he did the deed. Fahey appealed the case.

PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT. By invitation of Myrtle Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, of Old Town, members of Excelsior Lodge, of this city, went to Old Town last night to attend a meeting of the former lodge. The degree was conferred upon six candidates, after which the following programme was presented: Singing by a quartette; recitation by Mrs. George L. Godfrey; song by Mrs. E. H. Lancaster; recitation by Miss Mabel Pease; solo by Mrs. W. E. Hollenbrand; singing by the quartette. After the programme, all the parts of which were excellently carried out, a fine supper was served, which was followed by dancing, which was kept up to a late hour. The Bangor visitors returned home by a special train, arriving here about half-past one this morning, highly delighted with their visit. "It was a good time," say they.

HOTEL THIEF CAUGHT. Yesterday forenoon Mr. B. M. Preble, proprietor of the "Preble House," No. 14 Haymarket Square, went to the office of Detectives Allen & Harriman and stated that rooms in his house had been entered at various times and goods taken from them, and that persons who had been away for some time on returning to their rooms found that in their absence they had been rifled of clothing, jewelry, etc. He had no idea as to when or how the robberies had been committed, and wished the detectives to take charge of the case. Detective Harriman at once went to the house, looked matters over and concluded that the thief was, or had been some one in the house. Obtaining leave from Mr. Preble, and being furnished with keys Mr. Harriman started on a tour of the rooms and with his own bunch of keys examined the trunks. Soon he came to the room of a man named Oscar F. Miles, a Province man, who has been in the city at work for some time. Here he found a big trunkland applying a key he opened it, when the cover sprang up from the mass of stolen goods of all kinds with which it was literally stuffed, the thief having stopped at nothing in the way of portable goods, taking even family photographs which proved to be a dead give-away on him. Learning that Miles was at work at Hampden, on an ice house, Detective Harriman started at once for that place and arrested him, charging him squarely with the crime, and the fellow took it as coolly as if it was an every day affair with him. He was brought to the city, and within three hours from the time the officer was notified the thief had been discovered, arrested and locked up for examination. It was a good piece of work on the part of Detective Harriman.

YE CECILIA CLUB

Antiquarian Supper and Entertainment.

The antiquarian supper and entertainment given last night in Norombega Hall by the Cecilia Club was an, excellent success, and in that respect it did not differ from the entertainments of whatever nature that are brought forth under the auspices of the club. There was a good attendance and all present felt well repaid for their presence. Supper was served at 6 o'clock at tables arranged around the hall and these were in charge of maidens arrayed in ye ancient costume, who ably attended to the wants of the guests. The ordinary luncheon consisted of baked beans, pumpkin pie, doughnuts, brown bread, Indian pudding with cream and coffee while the "new fangled dishes for ye proud" were salads, oysters, ice cream, coffee and rolls, and cake. Candy was also on sale. The refreshments were liberally partaken of.

At eight o'clock the members of the club formed for the antiquarian grand march and proceeded once around the hall to the march played on the piano by Miss Garland. The antiquarian dresses of the ladies were very handsome and striking, and the gentlemen appeared to good advantage. The club took their station upon the platform and the minuet was given. It was participated in by Misses McLaughlin, Simpson, Stone and Crowell and Messrs. M. H. Andrews, S. H. Boardman, F. D. Lincoln and W. B. Goodenow. This feature was a very pleasing one and the stately dance was accurately performed.

The following was the list of ye tunes sung: Chorus, "Sherburn," Ye Greate Choir; chorus, "Easter Anthem," Ye Greate Choir; Four Part Song, Apollo Quartette; Exhotation, "Aunt Sophora Tabor at the Opera," Miss Edith Marsh; chorus, "Ode on Science," Ye Greate Choir; Worldlie Songe, Mr. A. C. Morton; chorus, "Invitation," Ye Greate Choir; duet, "Two Old Menne of Ye Olden Time" Messrs. G. T. Moody and Joseph Emerson; Campaign Songe, "National Whig Songe," Mr. W. A. Palmer; chorus, "New Durham," Ye Greate Choir; Worldlie Songe, "Annie Laurie," Miss Leavitt; "Eselpnoyesag," Messrs. W. A. Palmer, Joseph Emerson, W. A. Gordon, F. D. Lincoln, W. B. Goodenow, H. N. Fairbanks, F. H. Davies; Worldlie Songe, "Old Poi Anger Times," Mr. Joseph Emerson; chorus, "Songe of the Old Folks," Ye Greate Choir.

The programme which was a very unique one was arranged by Mr. F. D. Lincoln.

The songs were well rendered by the club in true old time style under the direction of timelst, Father Andrews. The Apollo Quartette made a hit in their song and were obliged to respond to an encore. Miss Marsh gave an excellent exhibition of her elocutionary powers, in her exhortation, and Mr. Morton was very amusing in his song. Messrs

Office of the Chief Clerk, Dec. 17, 1888.

Dr. F. S. Hutchinson & Co., Gents:—When in Kittery, Me., last Sept., my father called my attention to your Anti-Apoplectine, which was claimed to cure Muscular Rheumatism, and I at once procured a bottle for trial, as I had been suffering with that trouble a long time. It has greatly benefitted me, and I am nearly free from it. I wish some of my friends to try your remedy. Send me six bottles by express, C. O. D. H. C. Lovell.

At this season nearly every one needs a good medicine to purify, vitalize, and enrich the blood, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is worthy your confidence. It is peculiar in that it strengthens and builds up the system, creates an appetite, and tones the digestion, while it eradicates disease. Give it a trial.
